Prayer: Trisagion Prayers

Starter: (There is no Starter for this session as most of the time will be needed for the main activity).

Learning objectives:

1. To understand what it means to drink “living water” ... that is, to receive the Holy Spirit.
2. To appreciate true worship as “in [the Holy] Spirit and in Truth [Christ].

Core Activities and Learning

All the reading, discussion and activity tasks for this session may be found on the worksheet, although these are the questions the students need to address, discuss and report back on. Substantially they will be working on their own with these tasks and then guided discussion can take over towards the end of the session.

1. When did we receive the Holy Spirit?
2. When do we receive the Holy Spirit (ie., He can be received more than once This is a lifelong process, the acquisition of the Holy Spirit)
3. What difference do you think having the Holy Spirit makes to our Christian lives?
4. What (or Who) is Christian Truth? Look up John 14:6.
5. In we are worshipping “in the Truth” then our worship must be immersed in truth and not just give us a “nice feeling.”
How do we receive “the Truth” in worship?
6. What kinds of truth are there in human life? How do these connect to Jesus Christ? How do these truths come into worship as well?
7. Some people say that all religions are equally true. This is unacceptable from a Christian point of view since some faiths contradict each other * even if sometimes they talk about the same of similar things in different ways. How then can we preach Christ as a Reconciler and Uniter rather than an agent of division and error (which is the devil’s business!)

Resources: Work Sheet, New Testament, pens paper.

Review: Faith and worship must always be immersed in the life of the Trinity, specifically in Christ and the Holy Spirit from the Father.

Follow Up: Next week, address the question “Has the last session made any difference to my experience and perception of worship?”
