Learning objectives: To learn why we should have love in the Holy Spirit.

Core Activities and Learning

Ask children if they know who the Holy Spirit is?
In your answer refer to the Trinity.

Explain why we should have love in the Holy Spirit. In your answer, you can refer to the following points:

- The Holy Spirit was sent to us by the Father after the Ascension of Christ.
- The "gift" of the Holy Spirit is not a static one, but has a transforming and sanctifying power in someone's life. As the Apostle St Paul wrote in Galatians 5:22-23, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control," He lead us into Holiness, by allowing these gifts to flourish in our lives.
- This is the Holy Spirit whom Jesus mentioned as the promised "Comforter" in John 14:26.
- The Holy Spirit guide us and comfort us during our difficulties, we just need to pray to God for His Spirit.
- The Holy Spirit is the power of Christians.
- The Holy Spirit is the Inspirer of the Scriptures working in and with its authors.
- The Holy Spirit guides and protects the Church of Christ.

Craft activity: Cut and paste inside the pear the Fruits of the Spirit.

Supplies: colouring pens or pencils, scissors and glue.

Review: We should have love in the Holy Spirit, as He is the Comforter and Guide in our life. He also brings very important gifts to a Christian's life, which are: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

Follow Up: At the end of next week check the fruits of the Holy Spirit. Which fruits are plain in your own life in any given situation. Be practical. Be specific. What can be done to increase your "score."
